THE LARGEST SPORTING EVENT EVER HELD IN NORTH AMERICA!

JULY 22 - AUGUST 7

The Fifth Pan-American Games, largest sporting event ever held in North America, will be staged in Winnipeg from July 22 to August 7, 1967.

From the romantic countries of South and Central America, the fiery, exciting, tropical islands of the West Indies, and from the vast and varied parts of the United States and Canada, will come more than 2500 athletes to compete in over 400 events in 24 different sports, creating the excitement and colour of a gay international carnival throughout the city.

A variety of events to satisfy every sports taste

Every sports fan, no matter what his interest, will find an event to his liking during the Pan-American Games. Proposed events include athletics (track & field), baseball, basketball, boxing, canoeing, cycling, diving, equestrian, field hockey, fencing, football (soccer), gymnastics, judo, modern pentathlon, rowing, shooting, swimming, synchronized swimming, tennis, volleyball, water polo, weightlifting, wrestling and yachting! Truly something for every enthusiast.

All Pan-American Games events will be staged in facilities of the highest international calibre, including a new track and field stadium, featuring a 400-metre composition surface running track, an Olympic-size indoor swimming pool with eight competitive lanes, and a cycling velodrome. Events will be staged throughout Greater Winnipeg, and in the surrounding countryside. Rowing and canoeing events will be held on the Winnipeg Floodway, built to control the waters of the Red River, and yachting will be held on Lake Winnipeg.

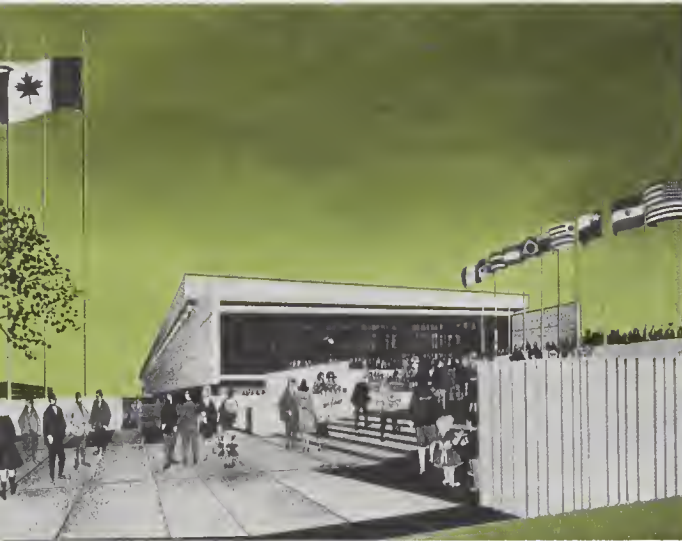

With more than 2500 athletes expected from a possible total of 33 countries, the Fifth Pan-American Games will be the most exciting and colourful event ever staged in the twenty-year history of these "Olympics of the Western Hemisphere."
